REPORTS

(A) PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, Assembled in First Church, Burlington, November 9, 1932, in the One Hundred Fifth Session:

Beloved in the Lord:

"Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, be unto you:

Yesterday we went out from one annual Conference to our several fields of labor; today we assemble in another to review our work, and to receive new assignments in Kingdom service. So rapidly has the time between these conferences passed that we can hardly realize it has been a year since we last met. So much has confronted us, so much of responsibility and of opportunity, that the time has seemed all too short for these things. But more and more we are learning that "time and tide wait for no man," and that what we do must be done quickly "for the night cometh when no man can work" . . . As we come now to appraise the work that we have tried to do, and to make plans for continuing the work He has committed to us, we do it in the glad consciousness that His mercies have not nor will they ever fail us.

In the Beyond

During the year two of our conference family have passed into the Great Beyond. Early in the year, on January 26, the soul of Sister Millie Garrett, widow of the late Rev. J. N. Garrett, was released from its tenement of clay to join the innumerable host in the "Land of the Blest." An April 22, Rev. R. E. Andrews took his departure from the things of time and sense to be forever with the Lord. Our tender sympathies are extended to the loved ones that remain. For their comfort we commend to them the glorious hope of immortality assured to us in the gospel which we preach and which they believed. Obituary committees were promptly appointed in these cases

Our Superannuates

All of us recognize that our Conference has never made just provision for our superannuates. The ministry is not a money-making calling, and those who give their lives to it have a just claim for compensation during the years when old age makes them unequal to the taxing demands of the pastorate. It is the opinion of your Executive that this conference must take this matter seriously to heart, and provide a more adequate support for our men who grow old in years and in service. . . . I urge that we seize the earliest possible opportunity to provide a more liberal superannuate allowance. Friends of this cause could be of much assistance by remembering our Superannuated Fund Society in their wills. I pass this suggestion on for the prayerful consideration of those who could help in this way. I also urge that all charges make persistent effort to pay the special superannuate allotment in full. My last official appeal on this subject is for a more generous support of our superannuates.

Woman's Work

The North Carolina Branch of Woman's Work is one of the strongest, best organized, most active, and most efficient of all our conference agencies. There are 95 local organizations representing churches with 4500 women in their memberships. Of this number 2550 are actively affiliated with the Woman's Work. It should be said that some of their organizations are Aid Societies, which do local work only. It is the hope of the Branch that all local organizations may be changed into Auxiliaries and thus become a part of the denominational plan of women's work, and that on other charges where there are no women's organizations these may soon be organized.

The effect of the women's organizations is reflected in both the material and spiritual aspects of the church. Other things being equal, our strongest and most progressive charges are those where the women are best organized, and where their work with the young people and children is being fostered. Another very important feature of the women's work, and one that should not be overlooked, is the fact that they support educationally and financially every program of the denomination.

Women, therefore, who wish to share in every plan of the denomination for Kingdom building, will find their opportunity in the woman's work. In addition to the support that the North Carolina Branch is giving to the general church through their $6,000 budget, they are rendering valuable help to our local interests, the Children's Home, Bethel Home, the Student Loan Fund, and the Herald. In addition the women have undertaken to raise $1,000 a year for High Point College Maintenance. It should be said that since last conference the women have raised on their "World Service" Budget $4,669.23. On their budget for North Carolina Work they have raised $3,105.21. . . .

Our Woman's Work is comprehensive, generous and indispensable. I bid them God-speed, and pledge to them the continued support of the pastors and charges of the Conference.

The Laymen's Fellowship

This organization is new among us, having been effected only last year. It is not, therefore, very deeply rooted in our conference scheme of work. We can see, however, that it is potential of much good, and we trust that it may grow into an effective means of enlisting the support and co-operation of the men of the church in the whole program of the denomination and of the conference. (See report of the Committee on Organization of the Laymen's Fellowship.)

High Point College

High Point College has entered upon her eighth year with a student enrollment that is highly gratifying, and with a general outlook that inspires hope and confidence. The present enrollment is 272, which will probably be augmented by those who come in at the second semester. . . .

The success of the $50,000 Campaign in the city of High Point was an outstanding achievement both in the financial aid and encouragement it gave to the College and of the deep and abiding interest that the citizens have in High Point College. Their co-operation in this effort was earnest and enthusiastic, and deserves the hearty thanks of the entire conference.

In his efforts to promote the College, President Humphreys is not sparing himself in any way, and he is ably assisted by a competent and loyal faculty. The General Church, through the Board of Christian Education, is also giving generous financial aid. With reference to High Point College there is much cause for us to "thank God and take courage."

The Children's Home

This institution has just passed its 22 years of existence. During that time it has fully justified the faith and wisdom of those who founded it. During all these years the Home has had a steady growth in material holdings, in financial support and in service. Since the beginning 226 children have been received and 119 have reached the age limit and have gone out from the Home to make homes for themselves and places of honor and usefulness in society. There are in the Home now 107 children, the largest number at any one time during its existence.

Under the management of Superintendent and Mrs. Dixon the work of the Home is being maintained in a most gratifying measure of efficiency and at a minimum of cost. However, they are being handicapped for lack of funds.

Last year the trustees of the Home requested our delegation to the General Conference to ask that the Home be allowed to participate in the Budget to the amount of two per cent. The annual conference also authorized that this request be made. On behalf of the delegation, I duly appeared before the Finance Committee of the General Conference, and presented the request, but the Committee did not find it possible to accede to it. We are receiving from the General Conference for the Home the sum of $1,600 a year.

Our Church Papers

The Denomination has one general organ, the Methodist Protestant-Recorder, and our conference has the Methodist Protestant Herald. These are weekly papers, and should be in the homes of all our people. It is impossible to keep informed of the movements in the general church without reading the general church organ. It is likewise impossible to keep up with our Conference activities without reading the Herald.

"But nothing that is good comes easily," as some one remarked to me recently. That is certainly true of the Herald. Dr. McCulloch has made trying sacrifices to give it to us through the years; so have McCulloch and Swain, the printers. We cannot continue to expect them to do this; but we must have the paper. We have been trying to solve the financial problems of the Herald. A capable Herald Committee has been appointed and we shall look to them for some plan agreeable both to the Editor and to the Conference by which the paper may be adequately financed. (See report of the Herald Committee)

I wish to express my grateful appreciation for the splendid cooperation given me by Dr. McCulloch, and by McCulloch and Swain, in handling my weekly letter and other conference matter. And, lastly, I wish to pay tribute again to the faith, loyalty, courage and sacrifice shown by Dr. McCulloch in maintaining this paper for 38 years, and to assure him of the grateful appreciation that we feel toward him for his invaluable and undying service to the Conference.

Official Acts

The last Conference left Siler City unsupplied. On November 18, I visited the church and had an understanding with them that they would undertake to provide pulpit supply through visiting ministers.

November 23, Rev. I. C. Smith was assigned to Kannapolis.

November 29, Rev. C. H. Hill was assigned to English Street.

January 7, Rev. O. B. Williams was released from the pastorate of Porter Charge, and on the following day Rev. J. R. Anderson was assigned to that charge.

February 17, Rev. M. C. Henderson was assigned to Yarborough Charge.

March 3, I called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council of Religious Education to discuss with them the work of Mr. Harrison in this department, and the salary to be paid him by the Council. It was evident to me that the Council would face a heavy deficit on salary at the end of the year unless some adjustment could be made; and this deficit, according to conference action, would become a budget obligation. Anticipating the wish of the conference, adjustments were made whereby the deficit will be avoided. Of the $800 promised Mr. Harrison by the Council, according to conference recommendation, High Point College agreed to take $500, thus leaving only $300 to be paid by the Council. This adjustment was satisfactory to Brother Harrison and the College, but left him, of course, with less time to give to the work of the Council. I trust that the conference may be able to approve this action.

April 12, Rev. J. Elwood Carroll was assigned to the Asheville Church, his pastorate to begin June 15 and to continue until October 1st, at least.

The Annual Conference instructed the President to appoint early in the year a Special Committee on Superannuates. This Committee was appointed March 3 and is composed of the following: Rev. J. E. Pritchard, Rev. N. G. Bethea, Rev. A. L. Hunter, Mrs. Henry Nicholson, W. T. Hanner and L. F. Ross.

June 26, the resignation of Rev. R. J. Tamblyn from the pastorate, to take effect September 1, was received.

Rev. G. I. Humphreys was assigned to the pastorate of Grace Church August 17, to fill out the unexpired term of Rev. R. J. Tamblyn, resigned. I also assigned Rev. E. Lester Ballard to this church as Director of Religious Education, his work to begin September 1.

Early in the spring, Rev. R. S. Troxler was released from the pastorate of the South Winston Church. Since that time the church has had no pastor but Brother M. H. Crisler, a licentiate of the charge has been holding services and exercising general oversight of the charge.

On October 10, I issued a letter of ministerial standing to Rev. R. J. Tamblyn, at his request.

During the year I loaned a number of pews belonging to the old Yadkin College building to Mt. Carmel Church, South Lexington Charge, to be used by them until they can seat their church with new pews. I trust that Conference will approve this act.

Recommendations

1. That the Conference districts remain as they are at present constituted; provided, however, that the President of the Conference be authorized to make changes during the interim of Conference when, in his judgment, such changes will make for efficiency and convenience.

2. That the duties of the District Chairmen, as prescribed by the last annual conference and published in the Journal of that year, be continued. (See Recommendations of the President, page 57, Journal 1931.)

3. That the Conference Council of Religious Education be financed by contributions from Sunday schools and Christian Endeavor Societies to the amount of $500 and that the allotments for this purpose be the same as last year. And, further, that these payments be handled by the Conference Treasurer; and that they be credited to the A. C. B. of the local church.

4. That the $6.60 received for 12 pews of the old Yadkin College property be given to the Superannuated Fund Society.

5. Because of limited money, I recommend that Brother N. M. Harrison be not employed by the Conference Council of Religious Education for this year, but that he be loaned to High Point College again, and for full-time service.

6. That the apportionment of $10,000 for High Point College Maintenance be continued, and that the allotment to the various charges be included in the report of the Budget Council.

7. That April be continued as Stewardship and Pay-Up Month.

8. That the third Sunday in May be continued as High Point College Sunday.

9. That October be continued as Tithing and Pay-Up Month, and that the second Sunday be known as Annual Conference Day. I further recommend that the President of the Conference, and any persons he may choose to assist him, be authorized and requested to prepare a program to be used in the observance of the day.

10. That "100 per cent churches" be kept before us as an ideal, which simply means that every member be given a definite financial allotment, and that every member pay something to the church. I recommend, also, that such churches be given Honor Roll recognition in the Conference Journal.

11. The last General Conference reduced the budget for World Service to $375,000. Our allotment of this amount is $42,000. I recommend that the full amount be apportioned on the basis of membership and pastors' salary. . . .

I recommend that the basis of apportionment be 70 cents per member and 25 per cent of pastor's salary, and that the membership and salary of 1932 be used as the basis of calculation.

I also recommend that the Budget Council be allowed to make the apportionment after the adjournment of Conference, the report to be published in the Journal.

I also recommend that charges handle the budget in such a way as to secure the most favorable attitude on the part of our people and their most generous response in payments. However, no plan shall be regarded as adequate that does not reflect thoughtful consideration and earnestness of purpose to raise the last possible dollar, and that does not have the approval of the President of the Conference.

I further recommend that charges raising 100 per cent of the budget be listed under Honor Roll A; those raising 75 per cent of the budget under Honor Roll B; those raising 50 per cent under Honor Roll C; those raising 25 per cent under Honor Roll D. This is to apply also to the Annual Conference Budget

12. That the committee appointed to sell the Crooked Run property be continued, and that the property be sold at the earliest date possible.

13. I recommend that the Journal of 1933-34 be published on subscription, and that no more copies be printed than the number subscribed for; except that a few copies may be printed to provide for unlisted demands.

14. I recommend that a committee of five be appointed with whom I may confer regarding certain Conference matters.

Valedictory

I come now to my final official word. Five years ago you invested me with this high office; not to be "a lord over God's heritage" but to serve. How well I have lived up to your requirements you must judge. I only know that for these five years, I have been constantly conscious of one fixed purpose—to administer the duties of this office to the honor of the Conference, to the utmost welfare of every minister and of every charge, and, above all, to the glory of Him who is the great head of the Church. My pledge to you five years ago was comprehended in the words of the Apostle: "As much as in me is." Each year I have renewed that pledge; and I have gone to the work of each day and even to this hour, in the consciousness of its compelling force

I have not done all that was to be done, not all that I wanted to do, and what I have done could have been done better, no doubt, by others. But one thing I am sure of: "I have kept the faith,"—faith with the church, faith with pastors and charges, and, best of all, faith with the great Overshepherd. And now that "the time of my departure is at hand," I am "ready to be offered" upon the altar of some charge that is willing to receive me "as a living sacrifice." As I lay down the duties of this office to go back into the pastorate, I do it with a deep and abiding desire for the honor of our beloved Zion, and for her expanding influence and increasing power "to scatter scriptural holiness over these lands."

I cannot omit in these final words an assurance of the gratitude that is in my heart toward the ministry of this Conference for their co-operation, patience and prayers during these five years. They have labored with me in love, and by their attitude they have strengthened my hands and encouraged my heart. I have also a like sentiment toward the laity of the Conference. Wherever I have gone they have received me cordially and given me sympathetic co-operation in my efforts to promote the program of the Church. To both ministry and laity alike I acknowledge my deep gratitude for the kindness, co-operation and cheer that I have received at their hands during these five years.

And to the Father of us all, I ascribe thanksgiving and praise for his unfailing mercies that have crowned the years with his goodness. He has comforted us in our sorrows and added sweetness to our joys. He has protected us from dangers seen and unseen, and preserved our health and spared our lives. He has given us food and raiment and shelter. And to all these material blessings he has added rich spiritual benedictions. And by his mercies we have had the joy of seeing his Kingdom prosper in our hands. Glory, honor, majesty and power be unto Him for ever and ever.

Respectfully submitted,

S. W. TAYLOR.

November 9, 1932.

(Secretary's Note: It is greatly to be regretted that this splendid report could not be published in its entirety, but in order to reduce the number of pages in the Conference Journal, and thereby reduce the cost of printing, the Secretary was instructed to edit the reports and reduce them to the bare essentials. That has been done in this case. C. W. B.)

(B) REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SUPERANNUATES

The Superannuated Fund Society, in their report to the last Conference asked that the President of the Conference appoint a special committee early in the Conference year and that this committee confer with the officers of the Society before formulating its report to the Annual Conference. We were appointed on that committee, thinking we were to help to create more interest in raising a larger contribution for our honored Superannuates. A meeting of the committee was called at High Point during the Pastors' Conference. In this meeting we were informed that we were appointed for the purpose of recommending rules, etc., for the governing of the Superannuated Fund Society in its work. Inasmuch as we are not familiar with the problems and the workings of the Society and inasmuch as we have great confidence in the ability of the Society to solve its problems, we therefore respectfully ask that we be discharged from further responsibility as a committee, leaving the matter in the hands of the Society where, we believe, it can be handled more successfully than we could handle it.

(C) REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

At the last annual meeting of the trustees of the Children's Home a special committee composed of the following, R. M. Andrews, N. G. Bethea, J. D. Ross, Mesdames W. C. Hammer, H. C. Nicholson,

T. L. Speas and C. W. Bates, was appointed to review the report of Superintendent A. G. Dixon and report their recommendation to this session of this Annual Conference.

At a meeting of said committee with all members present the following report was directed to be submitted:

1. We are moved by a sense of profound gratitude to Almighty God for the success which has attended the labors of our workers in the Home this year. The health of all has been good; the deportment of the children acceptable, the crops from our farm have made a very good yield, and there has been made a satisfactory showing in the finances of the Home considering the depression. Dr. Dixon and his helpers have shown great economy in keeping the deficit so small during these years when the income has declined so much. And but for the debt in operating expenses which was inherited by Superintendent Dixon there would be no occasion for this special appeal to the church for emergency aid. But this debt has become a source of considerable annoyance; for the creditors of the Home want their money—they need it in their business, and while kind in their attitude they have let Dr. Dixon know that they are looking to him for the payment of these debts.

Therefore, your committee feels that for the best interests of the church as well as of the Home these obligations should be met at the earliest possible date. We therefore recommend,—1. That an earnest appeal be made to all those who have been contributing as much as a day's wage to the Home at Thanksgiving to continue to do so, and that as many more as possible join them this year. This custom was established many years ago and we heartily recommend its continuance.

2. That those who for any reason cannot, or will not, contribute an amount equal to a day's wage this year be urged to contribute at least one dollar, and that the goal in every church in the North Carolina Conference be set for one dollar per member for our gift to the Home for this Thanksgiving. And after the above offerings shall be taken an appeal shall be made to each congregation for a silver offering which is to apply on the goal of one dollar per church member, in order that all our people may have a share in raising the indebtedness against the Home for operating expenses.

3. That the president of the annual conference, pastors of the churches, superintendents of Sunday Schools and other leaders in our churches be urged to lay the needs of the Home upon the hearts of our people throughout the annual conference—That a faithful effort shall be made by all our people in this campaign.

4. That the period for this campaign be set for November 20th, to November 27th, inclusive; and that this be a week of prayer for the Home while the offerings are being received. This is the first special campaign for the Home in several years.

5. Further, that every church in our conference be requested to hold a "Get Together Meeting" in the interest of the Home during the Conference year, at which time the interests and claims of the Home shall be presented to the membership. Said meetings to be under direction of the pastors, who shall prepare program and set date for the meetings. That Dr. Dixon shall furnish to our pastors such data as he shall deem necessary for the information of our people as to the real condition and needs of the Home.

6. That the Chairman of the Districts in the Women's Work together with the Chairmen of the Annual Conference Districts be asked to cooperate in seeing that the plans and purposes of this campaign shall be presented in every church, as nearly as possible at the time set forth.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. ANDREWS, Chairman,
MRS. H. C. NICHOLSON, Secretary.

(D) REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Brethren:

I have the privilege of presenting to you my second annual report as president of High Point College. I feel that it is not only your right as a conference to have such a report, but that it is also necessary that you have it in order that your being informed may help to engender interest and enthusiasm for the work of the college.

Announcements

I am glad to be able to report that a One Thousand Dollar Scholarship has been established by Mr. A. E. Alexander and sisters, to be known as the Ida E. Alexander Scholarship. The income from this is paid annually to a worth student designated by the president.

The Woman's Club of High Point has created a Scholarship Loan Fund, known as the Annie Laurie Johnston Loan Fund. This is a revolving fund, $200 this first year is available to a Junior and Senior.

The Garden Clubs of High Point have taken as their combined project for this year the improving and beautifying of the college campus. I feel sure that with these women interested the college campus will be greatly improved.

For more than a year Mr. N. M. Harrison, the Promotional Secretary of the college, has been working for a Gymnasium. He has been securing donations of materials and money. Recently the Business Men's Club of High Point made a donation of $1000 which will make possible the completion of the project. The building is now under construction and we hope to have it finished before the new year. This building, while spoken of as a temporary one, will be such in construction and size as to serve our needs for some years. The thanks of the administration, student body and friends of the college are due Mr. Harrison for his interest and persistent efforts in securing this much needed building.

1. Statistical

The enrollment for the eighth year ending June, 1932, was 275. Thirty-nine were graduated in June and four more at the end of summer session in August.

The ninth year of the college began the 16th of the past September. Our enrolment on the last day of registration was 272. However, the total number of students in the regular classes and the one year special students represent a gain of 13 over last year. Our loss was in the number taking music. With the prospective additions for the second semester we will exceed the total roll of last year. That we maintain an enrollment equal to last year is most encouraging—many colleges failed to do this. And that we have been able to practically maintain the standard of enrollment during the past three years is a great source of satisfaction, and a great tribute to the college.

It is the general conviction of the Faculty that each year the incoming students improve in the average caliber and that we have a splendid type of young men pursuing work with us. We are encouraging the coming of this type of student by offering Tuition Scholarships to High School Valedictorians of next June. Our promotional secretary is sponsoring also an Oration and Essay Contest next spring and offering scholarships to the winning contestants. We are trying to concern ourselves with quality student as we seek to build our enrollment. And we are setting as our goal for next September 150 Dormitory and 200 Day students.

2. Financial

Last November we came to you with an appeal for your support of a Bond Selling Campaign, a conference wide effort together with an appeal to High Point, as the objectives. Plans for this work were well laid and begun. Sixty days and less, after conference adjourned the banks of the state began to be unsteady and to close. To do what we had set out to do was impossible. In all, $17,700 worth of bonds were sold throughout the church in the state. $6,000 were placed in High Point, which with the $7,000 previously sold, made a city total of $13,000. This was a long way from the goal but what was done was a great relief to the burden. There are bonds now outstanding of $64,500.

As the college year drew to a close the necessity of finding some means of relieving the pressure arising from the accumulated debt in current operations became more insistent, in fact, threatened most seriously the continued operation of the college. After deliberation, the Trustees authorized me to proceed with the plan I had outlined to them of asking the City of High Point and nearby communities to raise for us the sum of $50,000. The money to be used for three specific purposes,—accrued interest on all obligations to August 15th, Trade accounts and notes, and accumulated salaries.

We employed the George Williams Company, of Lebanon, Pa, to conduct the campaign. Many folks said it could not be done. No one seemed to believe that it could be done. In the midst of the effort 6,000 workers in the Textile industry of the city went on a strike lasting two weeks. This delayed our drive more than two weeks just at the peak of the interest and support. But it was done. To this amount of $50,000, the citizens of High Point subscribed $30,274; Thomasville, $1100; Asheboro, $1025; Winston-Salem, $208; the Board of Christian Education, $5000; contributions from concessions on Trade Accounts and Notes amounted to $8,410. And the Faculty absorbed $5000 of back salaries.

The money is coming in slowly but surely. I believe the shrinkage will be small. This campaign does not give us yet a clean sheet on current deficit, since approximately $10,000 must go for interest and insurance, but it reduces the total by about $40,000 and will enable us, if the church will stand by, to pull through ultimately.

I cannot too highly express my gratitude for the success of the campaign. I cannot pay too great a tribute to the Spirit of High which, amidst general depression and the knowledge that the church could not at that time greatly add, came to the support of High Point College and saved it to the community and for the Methodist Protestant Church. What other city in North Carolina, what other city anywhere, has been more generous and more loyal to a denominational institution in its midst and under operation less than ten years?

Your Board of Education will make its own financial report.

Our audit of September 1st, showed that our operating expenses were reduced over the previous year by nearly $12,000. Our per capita loss is the lowest of any year. And here is an interesting fact, I was able to get the per capita cost of operation of four other colleges of the state. Two were church colleges and two were not. Our cost per capita was $22 less than one church college, and $30 less than the other. Our cost per capita compared with the other two institutions showed $23 less than one and $41 less than the other. In this day, surely economy of operation ought to commend itself. On September 1, 1931, our current liabilities over current assets were $64,062; and on September 1, this year, 64,684.

3. Constituency

This is two-fold, Church and Community. We are not only a denominational college, but we are also a community institution. Let us analyze our respective support.

(a)—Community. This year we have registered from the City of High Point 115 students, or 42 per cent of our total roll. Twenty-five more come from Guilford County, outside of High Point; and from outside of Guilford County, but within a radius of 25 miles of the college, there come 35 or more students. A total of 175, or 65 per cent. Our community patronage is steadily growing and will continue so to do. In this community patronage we note a growth of Methodist Episcopal young people from 60 in 1929-30 to 90 in this year's body. Attendance of Baptist and Presbyterian youth has grown 3 per cent and 1 per cent in this same period.

(b)—Church. I regret to say that our Methodist Protestant attendance is 29 less this year than in 1929-30. Out of our Dormitory group with a total of 98, just 53 are of our own denomination. Certainly out of the Methodist Protestant homes more than 25 miles distant from the college there are more than 53 boys and girls going to college. The building up of our dormitory group is our problem (as I indicated in my report of last year.) Its success must in a very large measure depend upon our own church constituency. For those students who go away to room and board at college, if they do not go to a state institution, their own denominational school ought to be the goal. This is a direct challenge to our Methodist Protestant homes—your boys and girls going away to college ought to come to High Point. I think I can safely say this—that so far as undergraduate work is concerned your child will get as good here as anywhere. We believe that the spiritual and moral environment equals that of any church college anywhere. And more, there is a challenge to your loyalty to support your own. Instead of one Methodist Protestant student in the dormitory over against one of some other denomination, there ought to be two to one as a convincing proof of the loyalty of Methodist Protestant home to the college which this conference promoted and must support. I therefore make an appeal in the words of last year: "This is your college and it is the best college for all Methodist Protestants in the old North State." We need your support that comes by sending your youth here to be educated. In every sense High Point College deserves and should have the loyal patronage, the enthusiastic approval and the spoken commendation of all our people in all our churches.

4. Conference Financial Support

High Point College was launched, and only launched, because there was conference support. Last year I reported that the contributions on the college current expense budget had averaged $5500 per year for 5 years, but that for the year ending September, 1931, only $1775 had been received. I have to report that for the year ending this September 1, the amount has been $1799. Six cents per church member. While at the same time we are giving in tuition charges to ministerial students of our church and to children of ministers of the conference the sum of $2100.

Does six cents per member represent the interest that our conference has in the college? Until the day comes when we are out of debt and there is some endowment, the only way we can run without an annual deficit is by the offerings from the churches.

In the campaign of the past summer High Point came to our relief and gave money toward wiping out that accumulated deficit of eight years because the church had failed its own. It cannot be expected that the city will again do this. We ought not think of it. But unless the church is more liberal than it has been the past two years, then it will be only a matter of a few more years before we will again be in the same financial jam. I therefore plead with the church, represented in this conference, for a more liberal financial support; I appeal to your sense of pride, for that which you have a right to be proud, not to saddle by default your obligation upon the city of High Point and upon the General Church. We ought to be unwilling that either should do for us what we ought to do for ourselves.

5. Leadership

This brings us to the question of leadership. On whom must the college or the Children's Home, or the Annual Conference Budget, or the General Conference Budget, depend for the sort of presentation of their merits, their needs and their programs, if the churches are to rally these causes? On whom? Manifestly these causes must depend on our pastors. After 25 years in the pastorate and 5 years in administrative work, I unhesitatingly say the pastor is the key-man. It is he that must unlock the minds and hearts of the people, and get to them the challenge of all the interests of the denomination. Scarcely will the people sense these obligations and the responsibilities for them without the pastor's militant leadership. I bring the words of Paul to us, my fellow-ministers:

"Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped. For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?"

If the church is to prepare itself to the battle, the pulpit must give no uncertain sound. And brethren the battle is on! The Kingdom Cause is in the hands of the church. The church is facing the acid test as to its own vision and virility. And the Methodist Protestant Church its Armageddon that will demonstrate its right to be called a church. Its support of missions and education during this Quadrennium is its testing. And God knows I want to believe that the church is ready for the battle and that the Methodist Protestant Church of North Carolina is ready to gird up its loins and fight to preserve what has been won in one hundred years of faith and sacrifice. I don't believe that we are willing, either as a church or a denomination, to surrender what we have won. And I am challenging myself and my brother ministers of this conference to assume a forward-looking leadership that dares to challenge our whole membership in this state to a responsibility for our institutions that cannot be evaded. Thirty thousand Methodist Protestants in this state ought to keep High Point College safe for today and for tomorrow. But six cents per member won't do it. But six cents per member won't be the measure of the church's support if the ministry, all of them, will rally to the CAUSE.

The battle is on! Like Napoleon's drummer boy we must not know how to sound a retreat, but we must beat a charge that will carry us on to victory! The Christian Church and Christian Education one and inseparable, now and forever! The North Carolina Conference and High Point College—One and Inseparable! The future of both is in the hands of the church members today, and the molding of that destiny is in the lap of the ministry! TO THE BATTLE! TO THE BATTLE! TO THE BATTLE!

Recommendations

1. That the Conference appoint Revs. P. E. Lindley, P. S. Kennett and N. M. Harrison for work at the College.

2. That the Conference designate the period from November 30 to January 11th, as "Seven Weeks for High Point College." And request the ministers and churches to put on a campaign for the college budget making the effort on the basis of a Dollar Per Member.

3. That the Conference re-affirm its approval—given at the last session—of the effort to organize High Point College 300 Clubs throughout the district. That the pastors be requested to give fullest co-operation with the college and conference committees in this program, the understanding being that active efforts for these clubs will not begin until after the Seven Weeks Period above mentioned.

4. That the Conference request the Board of Education to join with the Board of Trustees of the College in launching a campaign to finish selling to our constituency in the state the balance of the quota for bonds—approximately $20,000 worth—employing for full time an experienced bond salesman. The understanding being that the proceeds from such sales shall go towards the reducing of certain notes of the Board of Education now held by the banks. And appeal to our constituency to buy these bonds so that the church generally shall relieve certain individuals, who were endorsers of these notes, from the burden of obligation they now carry.

5. That the Conference by formal resolution tender the citizens of High Point, and the committees near by that assisted, appreciation for the generous support of the college in the $50,000 campaign recently completed.

6. That the Conference adopt a resolution calling the attention of all our people to the necessity, both for the sake of the church and of the college, of educating their children at High Point College. And that the first Sunday in May may be designated as Christian Education Day; and that our ministers be requested to preach on a fitting theme that Sunday, and read such resolutions to their respective congregations and Sunday schools.

7. That each church be requested to appoint a Lady Visitor for High Point College, and that such visitor be informed that her duty shall be to assist the pastor in presenting to the church and its organizations the interests and welfare of the College in its program for building a college-minded constituency in each and every church.

Fraternally,

G. I. HUMPHREYS, President.

(F) REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RURAL CHURCH

Realizing that a large per cent of the membership of the Methodist Protestant Church in North Carolina is rural, and also that the rural church plays a large part in the salvation of the city church, it seems wise and fitting that the Annual Conference place much emphasis upon the program and activities of the rural church.

Realizing that the Master and the Great Teacher, Jesus Christ, was a leader, and not a driver, of men: that He said "Come" and they followed: that He offered the challenge and they accepted, we believe that the church must also say "come." In this age when the cry sounds so loudly that youth, especially, and people in general, have forsaken and forgotten the church we think it wise to follow the example of the Great Teacher in offering a challenge and then saying to those who have forsaken, or who have never known, the church, "Come."

Jesus taught His disciples that men do not put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved, (Matt. 9:17) which is to say, men cannot put a new age or civilization into the old form. Yet many of our churches hold only to the methods of procedure of an age gone by. We do not mean to infer that the church should try to compete with many of the activities of the world, but we do believe that the church must offer the challenge, which if rightly presented will gladly be accepted, by both the youth and people in general, who will also willingly offer themselves as living sacrifices for the kingdom of God.

We believe that rural churches must consolidate in many places for the most effective service. But whether they consolidate or continue in the present boundary, a worthwhile, working, program is necessary. Therefore, we call to consideration again, with certain minor changes, the program points submitted at the last annual conference by the committee on rural church. (See Journal 1932, page 74.)

Respectfully submitted,

THE COMMITTEE.

(G) REPORT ON CONSOLIDATION OF RURAL CHURCHES

Your committee desires to submit the following:

We know much has been said on the subject of consolidation little of which can be put into effect by our churches under present conditions.

No doubt, some of our churches ought to be re-elected, others perhaps consolidated; but this brings on problems which must be adjusted by the communities involved.

We believe each church should make a religious survey of its territory, and thoroughly cultivate its field before considering seriously the problem of consolidation.

We know of no church which has thoroughly cultivated its territory. When 50 per cent of the people are out of touch with the church and Sunday school, there is urgent need for each church to redouble its efforts in its own field.

Since the rural church is a vital problem for our Conference, and at present we have two committees to deal with this problem, one appointed by the President, this one elected by the Conference, we recommend the consolidation of these two committees under the title of "The Committee on the Rural Church." This committee to be elected by the Conference, and be subject to the call of the President to visit communities where its services are needed during the interim of Conference.

If we are to have committees, let's give some one power to use them as occasion demands for the development of our conference.

(H) REPORT OF PASTORAL WORK

The pastoral oversight of the immortal interests of the flock of God is of such a nature, requiring such consecration, that those who assume it should devote every power of mind, of body and of spirit to it. For one may fail to win men by his pulpit ministrations and yet succeed through his pastoral contacts. The successful pastor, therefore, is a visiting pastor who knows his members by name; he is a praying pastor who prays with his members in their homes; he is a sympathetic pastor who enters into the daily tasks, sorrows and joys of his people; he is a fearless pastor, rebuking sin, condemning wrong doing by great and small wherever known, thus heeding the injunction of the great Apostle to "Reprove, rebuke, with all long suffering, gentleness and love."

Therefore, he ought not to be a money raiser. Not that he is too good to be troubled with the handling of "filthy lucre," but that his people usually are not good enough for him to do it. We mean, that it is quite difficult for a pastor to give much time and thought to raising money even for his church without giving offense to those who fail to see the service of money to the cause of Christ.

The pastor ought not to allow partisan politics to control his attitudes towards others. While the pastor certainly ought to strive for the enactment and enforcement of those laws which tend to the betterment of his people, and the maintenance of good government, yet he who is known as a partisan in politics thereby fails to hold the respect and good will of many among his membership.

The pastor ought not to have to labor for his support,—provision should be made for it. Your pastor, if he is what he should be, is of too much value to you as a spiritual advisor; as a preacher of the word; as a teacher of the truth of God, to have to spend a major part of his time in winning his daily bread. Let him give himself to meditation, to prayer, to the study of the Bible to visiting the sick and ministering to the spiritual interests of the community, instead of being a bread winner, or a financial promotor for your church.

(J) REPORT OF METHODIST PROTESTANT HERALD

There is no way to estimate the value of the Methodist Protestant Herald, which has been circulated among us for 38 years. It has acted as a weekly love letter among our constituency, and it has helped to establish and strengthen our institutions. Therefore we recommend:

(1)—That this Annual Conference express to Dr. J. F. McCulloch our very great appreciation for the faithful and sacrificial services rendered in keeping the Herald going. We fully realize our debt to him, and do not wish him to continue at a financial loss. We recommend that the same machinery be set up as of last year to secure subscriptions for the Herald, and that Mr. E. L. Douglas be asked to continue to serve as the Conference Herald Agent, and urge that all pastors and charges cooperate with him. Mr. Douglas and his solicitors to be asked to see that each church raise its allotment.

(2) We recommend that the North Carolina Branch of Woman's Auxiliary be asked to continue its annual contribution of $100.00.

That High Point College be asked to contribute per year.....$200.00

The Children's Home per year$100.00

That the Annual Conference contribute per year 200.00

That the Conference Council of Religious Educ. contribute.. 100.00

That

Churches with less than 100 members contribute.....$ 2.50

Churches whose membership is from 101 to 200..... 5.00

Churches whose membership is from 201 to 300..... 7.50

Churches whose membership is from 301 to 400..... 10.00

Churches whose membership is from 401 to 500..... 15.00

Churches whose membership is more than 500..... 20.00

This plan, we believe will at least take care of the $1000.00 suggested in Dr. McCulloch's open letter to the Conference members.

We recommend that this committee on Methodist Protestant Herald be held intact during this fiscal year with a view to helping to work out the above plans, and that it be clothed with power to act in cases of emergency.

(K) REPORT ON MINISTERIAL MORAL CHARACTER

We have carefully and prayerfully looked into the matter concerning request of Rev. J. T. Sisk for reinstatement, and find that nothing that would justify us to make such recommendation.

J. W. HULIN,
A. L. SPENCER.

(M) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OFFICIAL CHARACTER

Your committee on Official Character would pass the character of all ministers and preachers employed by the conference.

B. M. WILLIAMS,
G. H. HENDRY.

(N) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE AND EDUCATION

We, the members of your committee on Literature and Education, heartily agree with the statements of the report of this same committee for last year, namely, Obscene literature is popular and easily secured today and is possibly tending to increase crime, immorality and social injustices. We also endorse what the report said concerning the value of our people studying the "Journal," using our literature, and supporting our own college. (See Journal, 1931 pp. 73f.)

We heartily endorse the comments of President Taylor on the value and use of our denominational periodicals. We also agree with him when he says that the Methodist Protestant Literature is the best for our Sunday Schools. It is urged that our people subscribe to, and read the "Methodist Protestant Herald," and "The Methodist Protestant Recorder," because these are powerful forces in building denominational morale and individual Christian character.

We advise that our people take advantage of all educational opportunities for their improvement. Many of our stations and rural charges have access to city libraries which would gladly furnish valuable aid in selecting and supply character building materials. Other denominational and state libraries are open to our people.

It is recommended that the title of this committee be changed from that of "Literature and Education" to that of "Literature and Christian Culture.

(O) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP

The picture given by Jesus, of a certain rich man who thought only of his assets and forgot his liabilities, doubtless, could be duplicated many times today. This man said what would he do, without taking God into consideration,—a God excluded program. But,

"God said" and the Sleepless Creditor foreclosed the business that night. (Luke 12:16-21)

Here is an illustration of those who want an increase without obeying the law of increase. This man did not plan to sow, or let out, but to reap and have ease without labor and giving out, which is against every law of God, whether natural or spiritual.

This brings to our minds the almost innumerable failure that have taken place in our land in recent months. Is it true that our Heavenly Father is trying by this to bring us to see that our danger lies in putting our minds upon the earthly instead of the heavenly?

The fact that out of the 36 parables of our Lord, 33 of them bear directly on this subject, and an average of every 6th. verse in the Bible relates to the stewardship of money, or earthly possessions. Is that not plain that we have made too many appeals without teaching just what God's truth says? To be sure the stewardship of life in general is taught in His word, but the fact that we have robbed God and missed the cataract of blessings which He has promised should we be honest with Him, should lead us to study this subject so that we may speak with authority. We deal with this subject too often apologetically, or in a sarcastic manner, when it should be approached with just as much earnestness as trying to get men to give up their sins; for right here is where the sin of covetousness is lodged. The preacher apologizes for preaching it, and the laymen apologize for not paying.

We recommend, therefore, that pastors study the best helps on this subject, remembering always that the word of God has plenty of material that will enable one to speak with authority.

We urge that our laymen study this subject with a view to not only satisfying their own minds as to what God requires, but that they may help that weak-kneed brother, who if he ever gives at all, does so while the preacher is new, or gives spasmodically. The New Testament plan of giving you will find is giving on the first day of the week, yes, really on Sunday as God has prospered. (I Cor. 16:2)

We urge those who believe in tithing, but do not practice it, to put their faith to work. The regular tither does not need urging; he knows the blessings in it; and that those who may say they are not Jewish but Christian, let them remember that if they have moved from the narrow provincialism of Jewry; theirs is a greater liberality which is exemplified in John 3:16. This usually is used as a subterfuge to keep from being liberal. But if we follow God's plan as referred to here in His Matchless Gift, we cultivate the trait of God which reaches to the height, depth, length, and breadth of God's cubic measure, and will bring to us another Pentecost. That would bring, if followed by His people the rebuking of the devourer, the frost from getting our fruit until there was full growth, both temporal and spiritual. Then, all nations would call us blessed, and we should be a delightful land.

(P) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Believing that the conference has been fortunate in the type of leadership we have enjoyed during the last five years, we recommend that the conference give Dr. S. W. Taylor, the retiring President a rising vote of appreciation, and bid him God-speed as he returns to the pastorate among us.

We concur in all recommendations of the report, and nominate Brother J. Norman Wills, Greensboro, N. C. to represent our conference in the organization mentioned in recommendation No. 16.

(Q) REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON METHODIST CO-OPERATION

The Joint Commission on Methodist Co-operation submits the following report:

1. We rejoice that through this Commission, and through the messages of the Fraternal Messengers sent annually to the sessions of our three conferences, there is developing among us a fine spirit of fraternity and co-operation in Kingdom service.

2. We recommend that we continue to develop as far as practicable a co-operative program in communities where our two branches of Methodism are represented. As an item in such a program we suggest the holding of joint Training Schools for Christian Workers under the direction of the Secretaries of Religious Education of the Conferences. This could be done with teachers chosen from both denominations, the students receiving credits from their respective Boards.

3. We are in accord with the resolutions submitted by the Commissions on Church Union of the Methodist Episcopal, and the Methodist Protestant General Conferences, and adopted by their recent sessions, to wit:

"That we unite . . . in recommending to our respective Commissions and through them to our General Conferences meeting in May 1932 and 1934, the creation, or continuation of Commissions authorized to begin at once after May 1934, definite efforts on the part of the three Commissions to make and agree upon plans for the union of the three Churches, and others that may enter upon the negotiations"

"That we recommend that in the meantime, by prayer, and fellowship and by co-operation in all good work, we labor everywhere and in all the churches to promote a spirit of union which will, before the sun goes down upon our earthly lives, make a visible as well as a spiritual union of these churches which we love."

4. Following our usual agreement that two members of the Joint Commission, representing each of the denominations, shall expire each year, we recommend that the matter of electing their successors be left to the respective conferences concerned.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
C. W. BATES, Secty, Pro. Tem.

(R) SOCIAL REFORM

We are convinced that social reform is of major importance. It is therefore the purpose of this committee to point out some of the evils that threaten our people, and to suggest means by which the social order might be improved.

1. We deplore the tendency towards disregard and breaking of the laws of our nation and state. Disrespect and lawlessness begins with our incorrect attitude. We need to learn what constitutes good citizenship, and to put forth an effort on our part to enforce the laws of our country. We feel that a right regard for our country's laws will assist us in keeping the edicts of God.

2. We have cause to view with alarm the desecration of the Sabbath Day. Too often our people use this day for inactivity in religion, and over emphasis of the things of pleasure. We urge a more careful consideration of the value of Church attendance, worship and Christian service.

3. We are made to observe the lightness with which marriage relations are held, and the breaking down of home life. Divorce and neglect of Christian duties are too prevalent. We ask for a more serious study of the true fundamentals that underlie happy marriages and Christian homes.

4. We are aware of much intemperance today. Drinking, the use of tobacco, especially by youth, questionable amusements, and whatever indulgences that cause the formation of bad habits are rampant. We would encourage youth as well as older people in receiving information for the correction of such evils. We likewise urge our people to a more zealous effort in retaining the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act.

5. We call to our attention the insidious efforts of indecent and harmful pictures and filthy literature in the form of books and periodicals. We would offset this destructive matter by encouraging our people in thorough investigation and acceptance of a more wholesome reading.

H. FREO SURRATT,

R. A. HUNTER.

(S) REPORT OF THE FACULTY

At a meeting of the Faculty the following recommendations were made.

1. That all candidates for ordination shall present a certificate from the Secretary of the Faculty that the entire course has been completed.

2. That all members of the Class shall be present at time and place called by the Chairman of the Faculty, and that no examinations be conducted by the Examiners after the work of Conference begins, except by permission of the Faculty.

3. That the book, "Empty Churches" be replaced by "Religious Education in the Rural Church," by McGloughlin, and that B. M. Williams be the examiner.

J. E. Pritchard and N. G. Bethea were re-elected Chairman and Secretary respectively.

The resignation of L. C. Little and P. S. Kennet was accepted, and T. M. Johnson and C. W. Bates are recommended to succeed them.

We recommend that the name of T. E. Martin be dropped from the roll of preachers.

We recommend that the Cokesbury Course of the M. E. Church, South, be accepted as meeting the requirements of our Standard Leadership Training Course, as part of the Conference Course.

We recommend H. M. Crisler for supply work, if needed by the Stationing Committee.

The following have passed in the studies named:

(V) REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

Dear Brethren:—The record of another year of service through your Children's Home has been completed. God's blessings have been upon us abundantly in the work, and we are able to bring you a fairly good report of progress.

The Children

There are 107 children in the Home. Nine have gone out during the year and nine have taken their place. The need to care for orphan children is greater now than it has ever been within your memory or mine. It is a God-given task that must not be shirked. Our church will not fail the dear Lord in this task in these distressing times.

The health of our children has been good, with only three serious cases of illness. Dr. S. S. Coe has been faithful to come to our help, and his services are greatly appreciated. Dr. W. L. Jackson has also responded willingly. Sveral other specialists have gladly rendered service in treating eyes, ears, noses, throats and teeth. The Home could not run without this free service, and it is greatly appreciated.

School Advantages

Our children are still in the public school at Jamestown, and thus are getting the same advantages of other children in Guilford County. They seem happy and contented, and good reports come to us from the school as to the work of most of them.

During our four years at the Home ten of our children have graduated from High School. Six of them are now in High Point College; one is in training in Long's Sanatorium, Statesville; one went to college for two years and is now teaching; one is a junior in Appalachian Teachers College; and the other finished a one-year business course and is now working in an office in High Point. This is a 100 per cent record. We cannot tell how long such a record will prevail. We now have a very fine group of children in the Hime.

Religious Life

Every possible effort is made to see to it that the children have the advantages of the pure atmosphere of a Christian home. In almost all cases our children are light-hearted, care-free and happy, as is the right of growing children.

Our entire family has full access to all the privileges of First Church, High Point, and all the children of the Home are members of that church with the exception of a few little tots. The children are wonderfully liberal in giving when they have money to give. Rev. N. G. Bethea came to us this year again for a week's meeting. Such a meeting, held alone for our family, is a great help in steady-ing us in our religious life.

Gifts in Substance

Some of the outstanding gifts in substance this year are: Mr. Fred McPherson. All our heavy laundry. (This is the third year he has done this.)

The Moffitt Underwear Company. 110 suits of underwear for boys.

Mr. R. O. Lindsay. one fine Holstein calf.

The Leaward Cotton Mills, Worthville. 310 yards sheeting.

Mr. M. C. McDonald, West End, N. C. 110 bushels peaches.

Mr. C. L. Steed, Candor, N. C. 60 bushels peaches.

The W. F. Allen Co., Salisbury, Md. 2000 strawberry plants.

The Elwood Hotel and the High Point College, waste materials from their kitchens and dining rooms.

A number of good donations of canned goods and other produce from churches and circuits.

Buildings and Grounds

We keep the buildings and grounds in as good shape as possible under present conditions. The two dormitories and some of the out-buildings are badly in need of repair. They must be repaired or damaged. If our people will keep sending in the Octagon coupons in goodly numbers, we will pay for some of the repairs with money thus secured.

The Work and the Workers

The work done through your Children's Home is and will ever be, one of the most beautiful pieces of Christian service that our Church is undertaking to do. The children who have been gathered into this Home and have been and are being taken care of by Methodist Protestants and their friends, would in most cases be lost to the Kingdom were it not for the Home. Some of them may not mount to great heights, but the great majority of them will reflect honor and credit upon the Church and the Home which reared and is rearing them. Our salaried force is cut to the minimum, and we are using college student help, for two reasons: 1. It saves wages. 2. It helps a few young people to go to college who otherwise could not go.

A Plain Statement of Facts

A statement made to the General Conference last May needs to be repeated here: The credit of the Home is very badly strained at present, and firms which have so kindly carried us have been compelled to press us from payment. They are kind about it, but they are firm and insistent because of their own pressing financial obligations.

Comparative Statement

Year	No. Children	Average	Cash Contributions	Value of Produce and Gifts	Total Operating Expense	Per Day Cost Per Child
1928	72		$19,892.65
1929	110	88	18,102.77	$3,868.51	$21,961.38	.57
1930	107	99.8	20,809.44	6,106.59	20,919.03	.545
1931	112	104.7	14,756.29	7,172.00	21,938.29	.46

The Duke Endowment report shows that, while we were operating at the rate of .46 cents per child per day, the average cost per day per child for all the orphanages in the two Carolinas was .77 cents.

The Duke Endowment has contributed to our Children's Home during the last four years the following amounts for each year respectively: $1,545.54; $1,820.70; $2,595.86; $2,530.70.

General Conference Help

Our Board of Trustees together with this Annual Conference made request of the General Conference for increased help for the Home. The Conference answered by allowing about the same average amount as was given each year during the last quadrennium, this being $1,600 per year. This amount will maintain the Home for above one month each year. The Children's Home is certainly a Home Missionary enterprise of the most beautiful kind. Until 1928 it was supported by the Woman's Home Missionary department of the church. But it has now been disassociated from all missionary departments of the church except the North Carolina Branch of Woman's Work. All of which means that the Sunday schools of the North Carolina Annual Conference must rally all the more to the support of the Home.

Our Needs

Our needs are simply those of any ordinary home, multiplied by numbers: 1. We need the prayers of our people. If we have their prayers we have their hearts; and if we have their hearts we have their hands. Those who pray for us will help support the work.

2. We need money—money with which to pay bills and money to buy necessities. More and more we are called upon to pay cash or not get supplies.

3. Repairs on building. The buildings are damaging for lack of repairs. This also calls for money.

4. Food and clothing and school supplies. For the coming winter we are really in better shape for clothing than for food, and the children must be properly fed. We have saved everything we could, and yet we will have to buy quite a bit of food during the winter. We are hoping for donations of food stuffs, and yet we cannot expect as large donations of produce as last year because of crop conditions.

The Farm

The farm had yielded a fairly good crop for the year considering the season. We killed 22 hogs, weighing 3949 pounds, sold 20 pigs; killed 9 veal calves, weighing 1315 lbs.; produced 771 dozen eggs; killed 218 chickens; sold two cows; saved 25 bu. onions, 85 bu. Irish potatoes, 190 bu. sweet potatoes, 25 bu. cane seed, 158 bu. wheat, 14 bu. rye, 72 bu. barley, 15 bu. peas, 225 bu. corn. We also saved 82 tons of hay, 42 tons of insilage and about 10 tons of corn stover. We also produced 70 gals. molasses and 11,294 gals. milk. We had large quantities of vegetables from our gardens and truck patches. All this to the amount of about $6,870.

Looking to Thanksgiving and Christmas

Other orphanages in the Carolinas have already launched their Thanksgiving Campaigns. All such homes are heavily involved just now. The Mills Home and the Barium Springs Orphanage are heavily in debt. Our indebtedness is not so great as these larger institutions, but we have a smaller membership to collect from, and it is essential that we meet our obligations. Then, too, other Homes have large property buildings which may be used as collateral, but your Home had no property which may be so used.

It may be that the Lord has put us in the Home "for such a time as this." If he did then he will see us through. But even then God has only human agencies through which to do his work on earth. We love our present work because it is such a beautiful way in which to serve our Lord. No finer Kingdom service is being done in the entire denomination than you are doing here. And the need for this kind of service is INTENSIFIED by the very conditions of the times. We cannot let up one whit in this kind of service. Thirty thousand of us cannot do less than keep the Home running at its full capacity and be found blameless in the sight of the Savior. It is a great work, but it will take the finest co-operation to carry it through till material conditions are better. It is his work and we are his children. We are trusting him to lead us out, and he will, provided all of us do our best. He is depending on us.

Recommendations

1. This Conference has urged again and again that each Sunday school make a monthly offering to the Children's Home. We recommend that in connection with this offering, the churches and Sunday schools be asked to set a definite goal and make plans to reach that goal each month.

2. We recommend that pastors appoint a Soliciting Agent for the Home in each local church, whose duty it shall be to keep the interests of the Home before the respective congregations, see that the proper announcements are made, and to solicit funds, produce and coupons; pastors to furnish the Superintendent of the Home with the names and addresses of these agents.

You will observe that the indebtedness of the Board with the exception of $375.00 is spread among the people of our own Conference. Had this not been true, and had these friends of the Church not been willing to sacrifice in the interest of the Church, your

Board would no doubt have been much more embarrassed than it has been. There is now quite a sum of interest due these people, which in the judgment of your Treasurer, should be the first money paid from the receipts of the conference.

(Y) REPORT OF THE MUSIC COMMITTEE

Year after year the music committee offers in substance the same report, containing the same or similar facts, suggestions and recommendations relative to church music. The committee of this conference session reiterates with emphasis at least some of these former recommendations.

1. That religious jazz (if there be any such thing) be eliminated from all services of worship.

2. That our own Methodist Protestant Hymnal be used in preference to any other hymnal.

3. That the advice of our publishing agent, Mr. Chas. Reiner, Jr., be sought in the selection of a hymn book, and that they be purchased through our publishing house.

4. That greater care be given to the selection of hymns for the church worship service, and that the pastor be given full right to choose those he desires to use.

5. That the subject of church music be accorded a special place during the Pastor's Summer Conference, and the Leadership Training School.

6. In addition to these, we desire to recommend a definite program to enhance the value of church music in the service of worship. That a young people's choir be organized in each church where it is at all possible which shall furnish the leadership for the music of the church worship services.

At the Leadership Training School next summer, these choirs will be present to compete for first honors during the evening sessions. The combined choirs of the several churches competing will constitute the choir to furnish special music for the Leadership Training School.

An information blank will be prepared to be filled out by the representative of each choir, in order that the three judges who will be appointed, may fairly evaluate the rendition of the competing choirs.

E. LESTER BALLARD,

A. L. HUNTER.

(Z) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES

In our church there are but two ordinances—that of Baptism and the Lord's Supper. In Baptism the emphasis is placed on the ordinance and not on the mode. We recognize the validity of either sprinkling, or pouring, or immersion. We also disapprove of re-baptism.

In the observance of the Lord's Supper, we feel there is a neglect on the part of our people. On these occasions many of them absent themselves, or take no part in its observance. Perhaps this neglect is greater among our young people than among our older people. This is an evil which needs to be corrected for two reasons:

1. Its faithful observance is the will of our Lord.

2. It is the greatest means of grace possessed by the church. For these reasons we urge that our pastors stress the observance of this ordinance as a duty which all Christians owe to their Lord, and to themselves.

J. A. BURGESS,

R. S. TROXLER.

(AA) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGES

Your committee on parsonages wishes to express their appreciation for what has already been done in providing and furnishing parsonages.

A good parsonage properly located and furnished helps the charge to secure a desirable pastor. It locates the pastor in their midst, proving a great convenience to the pastor.

Realizing the great importance of parsonages, we offer the following recommendations:

1. That pastors and their families be urged to take the best care possible of the parsonage, the furnishings and grounds.

2. That parsonage trustees keep the parsonage painted, repaired and insured, and that furnishings be added when needed.

3. That those who do not have a parsonage, be encouraged to provide one at their earliest convenience.

E. A. BINGHAM,
C. E. RIDGE.

(BB) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS

Your committee on missions submit the following:

1. That we reaffirm the work and program of the Board of Missions and use the pulpit and church organizations to the limit of their possibilities for the whole-hearted promotion of the same. We hereby acknowledge the very efficient work carried forward by the womanhood of the church and urge the pastors to seek a like support and interest from the church laymen. Through the Woman's Auxiliary and its various circles, the women and girls are becoming more and more missionary-minded. The Missionary task and program should present a real challenge to the men and boys of our church family. The task of the church is not merely to pay our benevolent budgets, but to develop missionary minded Christians. To make the whole of the church missionary in spirit should be the object of every church administrator. We would suggest missionary study classes, and other forms of missionary education for the development of such a spirit among us.

2. We regret that there has been a curtailment in our missionary activity, and urge the churches to increase their missionary giving. We believe the time has come when we should seek to give our people a vision of the way in which they can serve the kingdom in the world as we find it today. The work in our mission fields has greatly suffered, and we should look forward to renewing our effort for its extension and enlargement. We would commend the very fine service rendered by the administrators, the educational workers, the evangelists and preachers in our various missionary fields. The work at Pine Ridge, Dillonvale, the Children's Home, Bethel Home, the work in China, India and Japan is work of which we may well be proud. We acknowledge our responsibility to these fields, and would call upon our people to give to these enterprises their loyal support.

3. We would call attention to Our Missionary Record, and suggest that in a larger way, the church receive and read the work from the field as brought to us each month through its pages. That we urge our people to spend a half hour each month discussing these items among the family.

4. The three special days when the members of our church bring their offerings for missions should receive careful consideration. We should give them special consideration these days when missionaries must remain home who are needed on the field. Therefore, we urge our churches to promote Children's Day, Easter and February Thank-offering, and call upon the people for sacrificial giving when these opportunities are presented.

5. Our churches should look forward to and plan for an effective organization for the men which will function within the local church and the conference similar to the Woman's Auxliary.

(CC) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCING THE CHURCH

Your committee in Financing the Church realizes the need and importance of a fact finding body to delve into the question of finances and submit plans for the consideration of this Conference. At the same time, we realize that the time is too short for this committee to collect sufficient data enabling us to bring forth such in a concrete form. However, your committee has met and briefly exchanged views and ideas and reports as follows:

That during the emergency or crisis through which we are passing, it would be difficult to adopt new measures or plans that would be any improvement over the system already in vogue by some of our churches. We refer specifically to the budget system backed up by the every member canvass, then executed by a regular weekly or monthly payment plan. It is the opinion of the committee that this plan, when properly administered, will bring results.

We have been informed that there are congregations in our Conference that still hold on to the plan of raising their finances by simply passing the plate when the preacher comes around to fill his appointment. The free will offering is perfectly all right, and should be used as a means of reaching those who are not regular contributors, but no church will ever meet its budget with free will offerings.

We specifically recommend, that pastor and membership, take time, either in Quarterly Conference or in meetings for this purpose, to study each and every item composing the expenses of the Church; that they together discuss the needs of the entire program including the pastor's salary. It is just as reasonable to run a farm without mules, horses or plows, as it would be to carry on the work of the Conferences without the support of the individual church.

The results obtained by the women of the church, fully demonstrate the need of organization; and we urge the men of the church to accept the challenge by organizing themselves into such forces as would bring about more satisfactory results than the reports for this year show. We commend the budget system, followed up closely in a businesslike way.

W. L. WARD
J. W. HARDEE

(DD) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

Evangelism is of tremendous importance in the life of the church. There are two kinds of evangelism, viz: Mass evangelism, and personal evangelism. The command of Jesus to "go ye into all the world and make disciples of all peoples" should grip every pastor, and cause him to fix a place in the program of his church looking to the promotion of this great work.

Your committee recommends that the program committee in our Pastor's Federation place this subject in their program and study at least one phase of evangelism at each meeting. We also recommend that the President of the Pastor's Summer Conference include in his program the study of evangelism, and that we cooperate with Rev. W. A. Melvin, General Conference Secretary of Evangelism, in the plan he has adopted.

We further recommend that each pastor as far as possible make his Sunday evening service evangelistic. Try to get some one saved at each service. Feel disappointed if you do not.

J. R. ANDERSON, Chairman.

(EE) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PLANS FOR THE ORGANIZATION OF A CONFERENCE LAYMAN'S FELLOWSHIP

Your committee submits the following:

1. That the districts to be set up co-incide with the Annual Conference Districts.

2. That so far as possible laymen be appointed chairmen of these districts, and that they be named by the retiring Annual Conference President. We suggest that a sub- or associate chairman be named from among the ministers in each district.

3. That the objective of this organization be to enlist every layman in an active interest in all the work of the Conference. "All the men of the Conference behind the program of the Conference."

4. The scope of the work to be done by the Laymen's Fellowship shall be three-fold:

(A) Social. There is great need of more social contacts between the men of the church. To that end we suggest frequent or regular meetings when the men shall gather themselves together for the purpose of getting better acquainted with each other.

(B) Spiritual. An organization of men can be of great help in carrying forward the evangelistic work of the church, either by assisting in the revival service, by personal work within and without the service, or by visitation evangelism. It ought to be the aim of the group to win unsaved or unchurched men in the community to Christ and the church. The group can also do an effective work by regular attendance on the services of the church, thus expressing its loyalty and devotion.

(C) Financial. The Laymen's Fellowship should assist the Board of Stewards in every way possible with the finances of the local church; become informed concerning the financial programs of the Conference and the denomination; assist the pastor to secure the money necessary to put the local church on the Conference Honor Roll; aid in financial campaigns for the Conference Deficit, the Children's Home and the College, and the Herald, which shall be put on by the various Committees of the Conference. They ought to see the financial part of the organization not simply as a means of raising money for certain causes, but as an opportunity to help the Conference and the Denomination to enter upon a new day of service freed from the hampering embarrassment of debt. "Loose them and let them go."

There is appended the suggestions contained in the report of the Committee on Reorganization of the General Conference relative to the set up of the Laymen's Fellowship.

Signed, C. W. BATES

(JJ) THE REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This has been an encouraging year from many standpoints for the Council of Religious Education. The High Point school while not as large in numbers as in previous years, yet from the viewpoint of work and the type of student in attendance it was above the average. There were enrolled 107 students. 55 standard credits were awarded and 145 young peoples' units. 24 young people signed the Life Service Declaration Cards.

There were 7 local schools held with a total attendance of 298. 145 Leadership Training certificates were awarded. All the local schools were self-supporting.

Much of the progress which has been made should be credited to the splendid leadership of the retiring president of the Council, Dr. F. W. Paschall and the faithful service of Rev. N. M. Harrison.

The Council of Religious Education makes the following recommendations:

(1) That all the churches in the N. C. Conference observe the Young People's Day some time in January, preferable January 29th (5th Sunday).

(2) That local Leadership Training schools be so held as not to have five consecutive nights, thereby giving the student more time for study.

(3) That since it is the judgment of the Council that it is not expedient at this time to employ a director of Religious Education that in order to further promote the work which has been done in the field of Christian Education by Rev. N. M. Harrison, therefore, be it resolved that: First, we elect a conference director of Christian Education, who shall carry forward, voluntarily, the program of Christian Education throughout our conference area. Second, that the conference be divided into 8 districts with a director in each, who shall promote Christian Education in his respective district.

(4) That the conference concur with the President's recommendation, namely "that the Council be financed as last year through the Sunday schools and Christian Endeavor Societies up to the amount of $500."

(5) That the High Point Leadership Training School be held June 26th to July 1st.

Signed,

T. J. WHITEHEAD, Pres.,

J. CLYDE AUMAN, Acting Sec.

(KK) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

The creation of this committee was the last legislative act of the last annual conference. To quote the Journal, the committee was "set up to study means whereby the ministers of the conference could help each other financially."

Our first observation, as a committee, is that the ministers of the North Carolina Conference have never as a whole received large salaries. Any impartial survey of the facts will readily substantiate this observation. To confine our comparisons to our own household, the average salary paid to the pastors in our conference last year was less than the established minimum salary in the Maryland conference for the same period.

However, this problem, as it effects our conference, is not a matter of keeping up with some other conference or some other denomination. For the year just closed 22 of our pastors served for an average salary of less than $550 per year. Many of these charges are large, rural charges, where the expense attached to a car and its up-keep would alone amount to more than half of this sum. The result is that we are slowly, but surely, destroying those men, both to themselves and to the church.

This condition, in the judgment of your committee, is certainly in part due to the fact that thus far the conference has never as yet made any definite, concerted attempt to care for our ministers as a body. As to salaries, we have expressed very little common sympathy one for the other. Certainly we have never as yet made it the definite concern of this conference to see that the men we send out to preach receive from legitimate sources a living salary.

The following recommendations are offered in the hope that they constitute a proper approach to this very difficult problem. Some of them have been tried to advantage in other religious bodies and also within our own denomination.

Recommendations

1. That we set for all pastors within our conference a minimum salary of $500.00 and parsonage, except where the pastor agrees to serve for less than the minimum, to accommodate personal considerations, all such exceptions to be recorded and preserved by the secretary of the stationing committee.

2. That we keep this pledge to the pastors from funds received from the following sources:

(a) One per cent of all salary received by all pastors over the minimum salary.

(b) Two per cent of all monies paid in on annual conference budget.

(c) Gifts and bequests.

3. That all funds be disbursed at the suggestion of the conference President with the approval of the Conference, provided that no funds be paid out until the president has used the full force of his office to see that a proper salary be promised or provided by the church or charge as the case may be.

4. That upon the adoption of this report that the conference proceed to elect some member of this conference to act as treasurer of these funds, subject to the above recommendations and the will of this conference.

5. That these funds come to the treasurer-elect as follows: annual conference funds from the conference treasurer, all gifts and bequests direct, all funds from pastors direct.

6. That all funds remaining in the treasury at the close of any conference year be carried over into the next conference year.

THE COMMITTEE.

(LL) REPORT OF THE BOUNDARY COMMITTEE

We recommend:

1. That the rules of the Annual Conference be so changed, relative to elections of two laymen to serve on the Boundary Committee, and that two laymen be elected to serve on this committee each year, to serve through the year, until the sitting of the Annual Conference, and that two laymen who are members of the Conference be elected when officers of the conference are elected.

2. That hereafter suggestions relative to changes in boundaries be submitted to Annual Conference and referred if necessary to the Boundary Committee.

3. That Flint Ridge, Zion and Hickory Grove, be detached from Chatham charge, and attached to Liberty, and that the same be known as Liberty Charge.

4. That Hope and Pine Grove be attached to Siler City and this constitute a charge known as Siler City Charge, and that the name of Chatham be discontinued.

5. That Bethesda be detached from North Davidson and attached as a loan to State Street Charge for this Conference year.

6. That Lawndale be detached from Fallston and attached to Cleveland.

7. That Shiloh be detached from Randolph and attached to Liberty charge.

8. That Mt. Zion and Mt. Pleasant be detached from Guilford charge and attached to Randolph.

9. That the name South Lexington, be changed to Lexington, First Church and Mt. Carmel.

A. G. DIXON, Chairman,
N. G. BETHEA.

(NN) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Your committee on Christian Education submits the following report:

The fact that this conference has a committee on Christian Education is evidence that we have already recognized the need of religious training. We want to commend all those persons and agencies that have been endeavoring to meet the need. However, your committee believes the need should be emphasized and kept constantly in the thinking of our people.

Therefore we urge our ministers and laymen throughout the conference that they give hearty support to all the agencies operating in our annual and general conferences that have for their purpose the promotion of Christian Education. We mean such agencies as the Sunday school, Christian Endeavor, and other young people's organizations, leadership training schools, missionary organizations, our denominational literature, and High Point College.

Your committee concurs in the recommendations submitted to this conference by the Conference Council of Religious Education. (See Report.)

As to High Point College, we recommend:

1. First that our conference by a rising vote commend the college administration for the economies and reductions in operating expenses, and that we express our confidence in the administrative ability and leadership of President G. I. Humphreys, and that we register our confidence in the future of the college and pledge our support.

2. That we concur in the recommendations submitted to this conference by President Humphreys in his annual report. (See report.)

3. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Whereas the Chamber of Commerce, the Social and Civic Clubs of High Point manifested such interest in the success in High Point College, and gave so liberally of their time in the recent $50,000 campaign, and

Whereas the High Point Enterprise, and its editor, the Hon. Capus Waynick, then and always was so generous in the giving news and editorial support to the college, and

Whereas the citizenship in general were so solicitous for the continuance of the college, and so generous in their response to the campaign as to bring it to a successful conclusion in the face of great local industrial difficulties.

Therefore be it resolved:

1. That this conference express its appreciation to those groups by a rising vote.

2. That it pledge to them its untiring efforts in the making of a greater High Point College.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this conference and a copy be sent to the High Point Enterprise for publication.

THE COMMITTEE.

(OO) REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Item 1. We have very carefully looked into the question of title to the Methodist Protestant Community Church in Thomasville and recommend, that the name Community Church be changed to Central Methodist Protestant Church of Thomasville, or some other name agreeable to the congregation, and that the property be deeded in fee simple to the Trustees of said Church and their successors for the use and benefit of the Methodist Protestant Church, this having been agreed to by the Community Church, Inc.

Item 2. We have also looked into the Kernersville-Oak Ridge matter and recommend, that the President of our Conference consult with the officials of Kernersville Charge concerning the Oak Ridge property and take such action as may be necessary to bring about a satisfactory settlement, either by securing the payment of the one thousand dollars or the return of the property to the Kernersville Charge.

Item 3. In regard to the Yarbrough Church property, we recommend, that the President be instructed to take such action as will be in harmony with the proper interests and rights of the Conference and said Church.

THE COMMITTEE.

(PP) REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SUPERANNUATED FUND SOCIETY

The Board of Managers of the Superannuated Fund Society met in the First Methodist Protestant Church, Burlington, on the afternoon of November 12, 1932, during the session of Conference. A preliminary report by the Treasurer, J. Norman Wills, showed a balance on hand of $96.71. It was stated that the report of the Treasurer of the Conference, Dr. George R. Brown, as made to the Conference, showed $456 on hand as a special offering for Superan-nuates, and that nothing was available for this fund from the Conference Budget.

The Treasurer reported the funds of the Society invested as follows:

Loaned to	Amount	Int. pd. to
Messrs. Bogart and Forbis, First Mortgage.....	$1100	June 25, 1932
Mrs. Byers, First Mortgage	900	Oct. 19, 1932
Board of Education M. P. Church in N. C.....	3300	June 1, 1930
Board of Education M. P. Church in N. C.....	2000	April 18, 1930
Board of Education M. P. Church in N. C.....	700	Nov. 1, 1929
Board of Church Extension	500	Nov. 28, 1931
Trustees President's Parsonage, First Mortg.	800	Dec. 16, 1932
		(2 yrs. Int. due)

From the above results, it will be seen that the policy of lending money to other Church Boards has not proved to be satisfactory. Yet when these loans were made, there was no thought that the Church could not deal fairly with itself. The loans to the Board of Education were made, for the most part, with which to erect a house in Greensboro for the agent of the College in 1922. Recently the rents have been very much reduced, and the house has been vacant for a portion of the time. It is recommended that the Treasurer of the Board of Education apply all rents that may be received in future toward the payment of this interest, so far as may be possible.

This Board has been charged with the duty of acting in the place of the Committee on Superannuates, and while undertaking to so act, recommends the rescinding of this action, and that in future a Conference Committee on Superannuates be appointed as heretofore.

This Board wishes to make it clear that there is no criticism of any Church Board which has a loan from this Society on account of non-payment of interest, yet our Superannuates suffer on that account notwithstanding. As long as the present stringency continues, and the Church fails to place in the hands of its Board Treasurer's funds with which to meet obligations, they will be unable to do so. We are simply suffering from the policy of undertaking to do what seemed to be much needed things on borrowed money. Our embarrassment is similar to that of countless business firms and individuals, who have followed the same course.

We are pleased to note that a special offering for Superannuates has been ordered for the ensuing year, and we recommend that as soon as possible, with due regard for the Conference Program, this offering be brought before the Churches and duly stressed, and that the President and the Budget Council, or other authority to be designated by this Conference, determine when this shall be done.

We recommend the following appropriations, to be made from funds now in the hands of the Treasurer:

Mrs. C. L. Whitaker.....	$5.00
Mrs. W. E. Swain.....	5.00
Mrs. W. C. Lassiter.....	5.00
Mrs. D. A. Highfill.....	5.00
Mrs. I. I. York.....	5.00
Mrs. J. B. O'Briant.....	5.00
Mrs. N. Brittain.....	5.00

The payment of the above amounts to be in full for the past year.

We recommend the following appropriations, which are on the same basis as those of last year; and that the Treasurer pay such part of these appropriations as he can from funds now in hand, and to be received immediately from the Conference Treasurer, and from other sources, pro rata. And if, during the year, further amounts be received, he make an additional distribution, if he should receive enough money to justify doing so:

G. W. Holmes.....	$160	E. G. Lowdermilk.....	$160
J. W. Hulin.....	160	J. F. McCulloch.....	160
W. F. Kennett.....	160	W. T. Totten.....	160

RESOLUTION No. 4

WHEREAS, Conservative and reliable authorities estimate that between 200,000 and 300,000 boys between the ages of 12 and 20 in America are vagrants, cut loose from home and all other character-building institutions, and

WHEREAS, According to reports of various Commissions investigating crime and criminals, we are told that in past years the criminal was middle-aged, intemperate, experienced in crime and limited in his activities to a special type of offense, today the line-up presents a parade of youth ranging from 17 to 21, versatile in crime, who cold-bloodedly and calmly recite, voluntarily, the most intimate details of planning and execution of ruthless crimes, and

WHEREAS, In order to change this alarming condition of so many of the youth of the land, the Hon. George W. Wickersham, Chairman of the National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement, says in his report made to President Hoover, "Every boy and girl should be encouraged to join the Boy Scouts of America or the Girl Scouts," organizations that have for their object the making of good, loyal citizens out of boys and girls, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Boy Scout and the Girl Scout organizations, and urge our pastors and laymen to encourage the organization of troops in all of their churches where it is at all practicable.

OBITUARIES

ROBERT EUGENE ANDREWS

Robert Eugene, son of Samuel and Sarah Price Andrews, who came to America from Sheffield, England, 1860, was born in Raleigh, N. C., December 1, 1867. On February 18, 1891, he was happily united in marriage with Miss Nora Lee Robinson who survives him.

When a boy he was converted in a meeting held in Wake County, N. C., and united with the Presbyterian Church in Durham, N. C. On November 6, 1910, he united with the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Answering the call to the gospel ministry, he completed the course of study outlined by his church, and was ordained by the conference meeting in Colfax, N. C., on November 21, 1914, and was assigned to a pastorate near Jamestown, N. C. After serving this charge for two years, he entered the evangelistic work in which he continued whenever opportunity permitted. Later, I do not recall the year, I received him into the fellowship of the Methodist Protestant Church. At the conference held in Concord, N. C., in November, 1919, he was received as a member of the conference, and was accorded the same standing he held while he was a member of the Wesleyan Church. In this fellowship he lived and died. During the time he was a member of our conference he and his wife carried on a number of evangelistic campaigns in our churches with gratifying results.

Failing health deprived him of fellowship with the church and the conference. He was practically an invalid for three years prior to his death. During this time the writer and Dr. C. W. Bates had the privilege of visiting him on several occasions, and of ministering to his needs as best we could. He was very appreciative of any kindness shown to him and his wife. He expressed his undying faith in the Christ whom he loved and served, and longed for the recovery of his health in order that he might continue to witness for Him before men.

On April 22 of this year, Brother Andrews quietly fell asleep in death. On Sunday, April 24, his funeral services were held in the First Methodist Protestant Church, High Point, conducted by the writer and Dr. S. W. Taylor, President of the Conference, assisted by two Wesleyan Methodist ministers. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery near by there to await the call of our Heavenly Father to an inheritance in the skies.

MRS. J. N. GARRETT

Mary Ellen Phillips was born November 23, 1852. She was married to Rev. J. N. Garrett, December 21, 1876. Passed from labor to reward January 26, 1932.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Jewel Isley, Graham; Mrs. Ida D. Holder, Asheboro; Col. Ruby D. Garrett, Kansas City, Mo.; Brice P. Garrett, Mocksville; Miss Vera Garrett, Pocahontas, Virginia, and Vance S. Garrett, Graham. She also leaves fifteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren, two brothers, Millard Phillips, Yadkin College; Lee Phillips, Lexington, and two sisters, Mrs. Mattie Smets, Hopedale, Ill., and Mrs. S. J. Worley, Charlotte.

Sister Garrett was one of the most cheerful women, always looking on the bright side of life. She became a Christian early in life and was a helpmeet indeed to her husband, for when he was on a charge that paid less than one hundred dollars for the year, she uncomplainingly worked and managed in such a way as to keep the necessities of life so that the children had the care that only a true mother can give under such circumstances.

She was also a sympathetic neighbor as manifested by her interest in her neighborhood. And the church never had a truer and more loyal supporter. To the very last, out of the meager allowance given her, she sent money back to her church for pastor's salary and the general claims of the church. She was interested in both and always designated how it should be applied. The last year of her life though she was confined to her bed, at her daughter's, in another county, she sent six dollars for pastor, and five for the general claims. That was what she had been paying for some time and sickness and age was not used as an excuse by her.

Many things like these could be said of her, like the foregoing, and doubtless if those who knew her best could be here to speak, they could give us many expressions of appreciation of her life, "known by the deeds which she did."

Surely her children can arise and call her blessed, for her interest in them was abiding. She is now gone to share in the rewards that she helped her husband to gain and doubtless a crown of rejoicing is hers also.

To the sorrowing ones she has left a rich heritage that shall be a comfort to them in the years to come.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. N. G. Bethea, a former pastor, assisted by Revs. Taylor, Holmes, Johnson and Mabry, all of whom spoke words of appreciation for her life. Other ministers were there who did not take part in the services but to show their appreciation and sympathy.

Many sorrowing relatives and friends were at Mt. Hermon Church, Mt. Hermon Charge that day to pay their tribute of respect as we laid her body away to await the Resurrection Morn.

PLEASE NOTE—The General Conference ("World Service") Budget has been apportioned in accordance with the recommendation of Brother Taylor, the retiring President, which recommendation was approved by the Conference. The recommendation is as follows:

13. "The last General Conference reduced the budget for World Service to $375,000. Our allotment of that amount as apportioned by the Executive Committee is $42,000

I recommend that the basis of apportionment be 70 cents per member and 25 per cent of pastor's salary. . . .

I also recommend that charges handle the budget in such a way as to secure the most favorable attitude on the part of our people, and their most generous response in payments. . . .

I further recommend that charges raising 100 per cent of the Budget be listed under Honor Roll A; those raising 75 per cent under Honor Roll B; those raising 50 per cent, under Honor Roll C; those raising 25 per cent, under Honor Roll D"

THE BUDGET COUNCIL.
